

(b) A specific answer shall be one of the following:

- (1) Deny;
- (2) No contest; or
- (3) Admit.

(c) For purposes of proceedings under this part, an admission or no contest answer is sufficient to support a finding of proved by the Administrative Law Judge.

(d) When the hearing is conducted in absentia, the Administrative Law Judge enters a denial to all charges and specifications.

[CGD 82-002, 50 FR 32184, Aug. 9, 1985, as amended by CGD 97-057, 62 FR 51042, Sept. 30, 1997]

§ 5.529 Opening statement of investigating officer.

(a) If a denial is entered, the investigating officer makes a brief statement outlining the matters expected to be proved.

(b) If the respondent admits the truth of the charges and specifications or answers no contest, the opening statement of the investigating officer shall contain a summary of the evidence upon which the charges and specifications are based.

§ 5.531 Opening statement by or on behalf of the respondent.

The respondent or the respondent's counsel is afforded an opportunity to state what is intended to be established. This may be waived or deferred at the option of the respondent.

§ 5.533 Presentation of case where there is an admission or no contest answer.

(a) If the respondent admits to any charge and specification or answers no contest, evidence in mitigation may be presented, and the investigating officer may present a prima facie case and evidence in aggravation even in those cases where revocation is mandatory.

(b) Should the respondent's presentation be inconsistent with an admission or answer of no contest, the Administrative Law Judge will reject the answer, enter a denial and continue with the hearing.

§ 5.535 Witnesses.

(a) All witnesses are sworn, duly examined, and may be cross examined. A witness on the stand may be questioned at any time by the Administrative Law Judge.

(b) The person who calls a witness shall begin direct examination by identifying the witness.

(c) Witnesses may be called to establish matters of aggravation or matters of mitigation.

(d) Any witness may have the benefit and advice of personal counsel, but such counsel shall not otherwise participate in the hearing.

(e) Any attempt to coerce or induce a witness to testify falsely is an offense under federal law which may be punishable by fine or imprisonment or both. (See 18 U.S.C. 1505.)

(f) Upon motion by the investigating officer or respondent, the Administrative Law Judge may order that testimony of a witness be taken by telephone conference call, when testimony would otherwise be taken by deposition. The telephone conference will be arranged so that all participants can listen to and speak to each other in the hearing of the Administrative Law Judge. The Administrative Law Judge insures that all participants in the telephone conference are properly identified to allow a proper record to be made by the reporter. Participants shall speak clearly and avoid extraneous conversation. Telephone conferences are governed by the procedural rules and decorum observed during in-person proceedings.

(g) A witness may be subpoenaed to testify by telephone conference. The subpoena in such instances is issued under the procedures in subpart F.

§ 5.537 Evidence.

(a) In these proceedings, strict adherence to the rules of evidence is not required. However, the Federal Rules of Evidence, as amended, shall be the primary guide for evidentiary matters, where applicable.

(b) Rules 410, 606, 706, and 1101 of the Federal Rules of Evidence shall not be applicable to these proceedings.

(c) In conducting a hearing the Administrative Law Judge will extend reasonable latitude to the respondent
